* * * * *

Love God with all your heart, might and strength, then love your leader; next, love those who are under you as well as love your equals.

“He who is faithful in what is least is faithful also in much; and he who is unjust in what is least is unjust also in much. Therefore if you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? And if you have not been faithful in what is another man’s, who will give you what is your own?”

LUKE 16:10-12 (NKJ)

Lessons of the Cross - 4. See Part Three, 6 April 2008. Jesus has set a kingdom operating pattern for us to emulate. The message of the Cross signifies selflessness. It signifies expression of the true and unfeigned love of God to man. This means we should express genuine and sincere love to one another.

LOVE:

In conclusion, the message of the cross is selflessness, sacrificial love (agape) and kindred spirit expression. This manifests God’s character in our lives. Jesus had come to reveal the true nature of God to man and then, reconcile man to God. (Matthew 5:3-16)

He had come to turn the minus in man's life to plus; change negative to positive--and change sinners to saints so that Gentiles can be part of the commonwealth of Israel and aliens / slaves can have "Sonship" right. God made him whom had no sin to be sin for us, so that in Him, we might become the Righteousness of God. (2 Corinthians 5:21)

Finally, the Lord has given us the ministry of reconciliation. (2 Corinthians 5:18)

GOD BLESS YOU RICHLY
