Our incorruptibility is not our own. Our immortality is not our own.

"Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption."

LOVE 1 CORINTHIANS 15:50 (KJ)

D DEATH – 5. Please see Death -1, Wednesday, 2 July; Death -2, Sunday, 6 July; Death -3, Sunday, 13 July, 2008; Death -4, 16 July 2008.
Let us take a different look at "death."

I was with Mrs. Jane Elliott most of the day today. She is an elderly woman who recently lost her husband. Near the end of our day as we spoke of spiritual things, she told me that she had heard, which didn't change her current belief of the "Rapture" to happen. I too hold this belief. But she was telling me this pastor, from a radio broadcast, said that he believed the rapture was talking about death. I didn't believe that for a second, but as I drove and thought about it, I could see how a brother could get confused concerning death as rapture, but I drove on.

I got home and when working on this devotional for the website, which I had written at the doctor's office, I went for the opening scripture. This is what showed up on an e-Sword word search..."death and sting:"

1 Corinthians 15:50-54 (KJ) And this is what I read and heard.

"Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption."

(Flesh cannot inherit the Kingdom of God, no-way, no-how. Flesh is corruptible; and therefore must be made incorruptible. Additionally, corrupt spiritual beings cannot inherit incorruption either. You see both the physical (people) and the spiritual (negative (corrupt) spiritual beings)

"Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed," (Okay, Paul is saying here comes a Mystery. Here it is. We (plural; all of us, but not necessarily all at once for everyone. Again—

Note: this event will happen to all of us, not necessary all of us at the same time or all of us all together at once.) All of us will not be dead.

Some of us will be alive and some dead just like now. But everyone will be changed...everyone.

"In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed." (In an unexpected moment, as quick as the blinking of an eye. At your last heartbeat. For the trumpet shall sound...

the sound of last tone leaving your eardrums as you transition into death.

When you do die, just like Jesus you get Christ inside you, magically supernaturally and therefore you become incorruptible (not based on your behavior while on earth, but on God's Grace and Mercy: LOVE.) The trumpet is the sound of the last tones leaving your brain. Once dead, the dead person rises to life again incorruptible with Christ inside... all the dead, Christian and non... all.

“For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.” 1 Corinthians 15:50-54 (KJ)

I will write what I wrote at the doctor's office the next time this series is written. Look for Death – 6.
