Each One! Bless One!

* * * * *

When in bondage, you cannot hear, see, think, or act in rational spirituality.

"When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses."

MATTHEW 8:16-17 (NKJ)

Back seat driving. I know you have been in the car when someone was telling you which way to go. Sometimes when riding in a taxi, you want to tell the driver which way to go. Typically, "back seat driving" refers to a person sitting in the back seat telling you, the driver, which way to go. In the case of this devotional, "back seat driving" refers to you sitting in the driver's seat of your body and a demon or evil spirit is sitting in the back seat driving your body around as if it is theirs. The person in question needs you help.

When "back seat driving" occurs, "front seat driving" has already occurred, where you can make decisions on what to do right or wrong, but constantly make the wrong choices. In the case of "back seat driving" you do not have a choice over what you are doing, saying, thinking, or acting. You do have those choices only when you are given the opportunity to have choices or allowed to have choices by the back seat driving entity. "Back seat driving" is a way of saying you are in bondage, spiritual bondage.

When you can't stop having that drink—When you must go to the strip joint—When must have that pair of shoes when you have fifty at home—When you have to work out when your muscles are exhausted—you are on the road to bondage or are driving while something else is "back seat driving." You know when someone is riding in their car (body) and not driving, because you say: "What is wrong with Susy? She is acting differently." Don't blame it on "that time of the month." "Why did he say that? Has he lost his mind?" Not only has he lost his mind, but he is "front seat riding" in his own body. "Doesn't he know that is killing him?" He knows but has not control.

There is a way out of this thing for the person who has lost control; out of this thing called bondage. "And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting." Mark 9:29 (KJV) Prayer and fasting works. The person in bondage will not do this, but you can. The person in bondage will be able to hear you, see you, but will not be able to respond to you. It is like they are tied up in the back seat of their car (body) while something else is driving. Speak a word from Jesus into their lives until you see them change. "The LORD JESUS rebuke thee, right now."
